Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WILLIAM MASON.
Charles County, Md. June 1.

The editors of the National Intelligencer and Baltimore Federal Gazette will insert the above until forbid, and send their accounts to Port Tobacco for payment.

TO the jail for Alexandria county, as a runaway, on 21st inst. a negro man, who calls himself HENRY WILLIAMSON, alias JACOB ROBINSON. The said negro is about 25 years of age, and about 5 feet six inches high, of a yellow complexion; he had on a blue cotton jacket, and linen trowsers. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.

The owner is requested to come forward and prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

Wheat, Old Corn, and Maryland Tobacco,

PURCHASED BY
Oct 4 LAWRASON & FOWLE.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper. I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent. for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.

The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:

The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown,
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.

I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May 1819.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

FROM A LONDON PAPER.

EPILOGUE

From the new Comedy of "A Word to the Ladies," spoken in the characters of Lord Ogleby and Canton.

L. Ogl. Fair Ladies, by you leave—the gay old beau
Your mothers cherished fifty years ago,
Your magic smiles, not less by him adored,
To life and favor have again restored.
But what an age is yours? Where'er I turn,
Beings whose very names I've yet to learn,
Force me, so novel is my situation,
To send old CANTON out for information.
CANTON!

(Canton enters.)

Can. Mi Lor!

L. Ogl. Peace, Sir—no racket!
What's that old Lady in the riding jacket,
Looking at me with supercilious grin,
Twiddling her locks, and propping up her chin,
In Turkish petticoats, all spick and span?

Can. Oh dat old Lady is young Gentleman.

L. Ogl. You blind old puppy—Gentleman! absurd!
Why you've forgot the meaning of the word.
Put on your glasses—look again and see,
Is that strange animal a bit like me?
Are my legs muffled up, as if grown bandy?

Can. Mi Lor, dat Gentleman is called de dandy.

You make the creature weep—

L. Ogl. Weep, Canton! why?

Can. Your Lordship's fashion now is quite go by.

L. Ogl. Gone by, indeed! my style's then voted scurvy—
Scouted—men, manners, all turned topsy turvy.
If that same sample represents the whole,
Ladies, I pity you with all my soul!
Your Swain deposes you, usurps your ways,
Your rights, your paint, your station, and your stays!
Say not his gallantry is on the shelf,
Of course, 'tis lavished all upon himself;
Let Fashion still her revolutions make,
And you'll assist him to his wine and cake:
Ask the coy creature of his friends in marriage,
Courtesy respect, and hand him to his carriage.

Can. Ha! ha! ha! ha!

L. Ogl. You brute, be quiet!
D'ye think the Gentleman can bear this riot?
Laughing at wit besides is vulgar grown.

Can. De Dandy never laugh but at his own,

L. Ogl. Then let him troop, if here his smiles he grudges,
To France, and join the modern brood—the FUDGES.

Can. To change a Paris, on de Opera bench,
His la la Anglois, into la la French.

L. Ogle. Send the whole drove of Dandies, there, for me.

Can. Ah! mi Lo, stock de grand menagerie.

From the Connecticut Courant.

HERE-AND-THERE FOLKS.

"As thy servant was busy here-and-there, he was gone."—1 Kings 20, 40.

It is an abundance of such here-and-there business, that occasions a considerable portion of the pinching wants of the present day. A small farm, cultivated with the utmost diligence and care, will furnish a prudent family with a moderate sufficiency. Again, 'he that has a trade, has an estate,' although he owns neither house nor land. But if the farmer & the trader, instead of attending closely to their proper callings, are busy here and there, they will assuredly "come out at the little end of the horn."—Moreover, though they buckle down the one to his farm, and the other to his trade; yet, if their wives and daughters, instead of practising the like industry and the like good management within doors, are busy here-and-there, "what is brought in at the door goes out at the window," all is gone.

See you that farm, overgrown with thorns and thistles, and briars, and its fences broken down. How comes it about? Is the owner one of Solomon's sleepers? No; he is not a sluggard, he is a stirring man: he is busy, here and there, but seldom in the proper place. Perhaps he is doing head work abroad; is chaffering horses or cattle or sheep, or is pedling over the country, or is pursuing in a small way some other scheme of speculation; or, peradventure, he has either got a little commission that occupies his attention, or is seeking after one; in which ever case, the "hand writing on the wall" clearly shews what he is coming to.

Lo, an auction! What's for sale? The goods of a grocer, and the tools of a mechanic. Are they profligates? No; are they inanimate clods? Far otherwise. What then? They are lovers of chat, of company, of fun; and so instead of attending diligently to their callings, they were busy here and there.

Mark the interior of that house; no useful industry going on; no order; nothing in its place; more wasted than is eaten.—Is the the housewife a dolt? So far otherwise, she is one of the most sprightly and lady-like women in the place; but she has no time to bestow on the affairs of her household; she is busy here and there.

Look upon that comely young man in the hands of a bailiff. Has he committed a crime? Not so! his reputation is fair. How comes it then? He is in debt. Is he wanting in faculties? He has excellent faculties of body and mind. Is he indolent? No, he is quick in motion all the day long. How happens it then, that he, a single man, who never met with any heavy misfortune is unable pay his debts? He has been busy here and there.

From the N. Y. Mercantile Adv. June 9.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

The packet ship Albion, Captain Williams arrived here last evening in 36 days from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 2d of May.

Capt. W. has favored the editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with papers up to the 1st of May inclusive. They contain no news of importance. The market remained in much the same state as at last advices, without any prospect of amendment.

British stocks, 72 to 72¼.

The Persian ambassador and his fair Circassian, have arrived in London.

A letter from Hamburg of the 20th of April, received in London announces that "the house of Haak and Schroder, together with that of Schnapauff and Rittmiester, are this day declared insolvent, the former to the amount of 165,000, and the latter to that of 233,000 marcks banco."

A fire occurred on the 2nd of April, at Hitskimmell, in Hungary, which destroyed the barracks, two churches, and 600 dwelling houses.

The emperor and empress of Austria arrived in Rome on the 2d of April—the Bonaparte family were not permitted to see them.

London, April 29.

This morning the brokers for government brought to market an additional quantity Exchequer Bills, and obtained a premium of 8s per cent on about £35,000: we have ascertained on good authority, that the amount of Exchequer bills sold by government last week is not so extensive as had been imagined; it appears that it was no more than £130,000, for which a premium of 5s per cent was given.

Mr. Hase, from the bank of England, has just made an official communication at the stock exchange, stating, that if there is a loan contracted for this year, that Exchequer bills for one fourth the amount of any subscription that individuals may make will be taken at a premium of 20s. This communication, it is believed, makes the report of a loan certain.

Liverpool Market, April 30th.

"Since the 13th ult. the markets have ruled heavily, and owing to the distressed state of Manchester, more particularly, a gloom exists to the extinction of confidence. The stock of cotton on hand, is estimated at more than double of what it was in April last year. In Manchester, goods are dull at present, and selling at reduced prices; the spinning trade, however, continues brisk. Stocks of yarn moderate, and it may be hoped no further decline of consequence will take place. But when prices revert in India to their old standard, cottons can be imported from thence at so low a rate, and they are used for so large a portion of our fabricks, they will always tend to keep down other descriptions, and we must expect all kinds to remain at moderate prices for a long time. About 250 hhds tobacco were taken last week for export at 3¾d to 5½d; continental orders are all limited to low rates. The average of wheat, for the 2nd week of the present quarter, was 73s 11d and it is believed the ports will remain closed till August; and in consequence, there has been more inquiry for wheat and flour this week, than for some time past. Our supply of Carolina rice is completely exhausted, and it has recovered to the price from which it fell during the last month. Naval stores continue dull.

Prices—Cotton, Sea-Island, Is 3¾d to 2s; New Orleans 12½d to 15d; Tennessee 11½d to 12½d; Upland Boweds 11¾ a 13d; ashes, New-York 42 a 43s; pearls, 1st, 48 a 50s; flour, Philadelphia, 39 a 40; N. York, 37 a 38s; wheat, 9s 3 a 9s 9; Indian corn, 3s 6 a 3s 8; rye, quarter 35 a 40; hops, Amer. 1st qual 6 a 7l; tar, 13 a 17s, turpentine 11 a 12s 6d; rice in bond 26 a 28s; flaxseed for sowing 80 to 110s; tobacco 3¼ to 7d.

Lloyd's Lists, April 27.

The N. S. del Rosario, of Cadiz, bound to California, was taken in the latitude of Rio Janeiro, by the Union privateer. The crew arrived at St. Michaels.

Paris, 19th April.

The Fortune, Fournier, from Marseilles to Havana, has been plundered by an Insurgent cruizer, and the supercargo thrown overboard.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The new elegant and very fast sailing ship Albion, captain Williams, arrived at this port last evening, having sailed from Liverpool on the 2d ultimo.

To captain Williams we are indebted for London papers, &c. to the 29th April, and Liverpool papers of the 1st ult. Such of their contents as are calculated to interest our readers, follow.

The prince regent was ill, but approaching to a convalescent state.

Lord Castlereagh had sent an extra courier to Italy with despatches.

Expresses reached London on the 28th April, announcing the revival of trade in Rotterdam, and the demand for colonial produce in Germany.

It appears by the finance report of England, that the amount of excess in favor of last year, is 3.662,811 pounds.

New potatoes were sold at Covent Garden market on the 28th April at one shilling per pound.

The Portuguese ship Temeratio, Santos, has arrived at Lisbon from China.

American stocks—3 per cents 62 to 63; new do 97 to 98½. U. S. Bank shares 23*l* 10s to 24*l*.

Consols, April 23, 71 to 72. French bank stock, April 24, 15 10f.

Prices at Liverpool, May 1.

Upland cotton, 11¾ to 13—Sea-Island, 2 to 3s—New-Orleans, 12 to 14½—Boweds in fair demand, but prices still falling; flour 32 to 36s; pot ashes 41 to 45s; pearls 52 to 54, little doing, but prices steady—James River Tobacco 3½ to 7¾d—inferior descriptions purchased for shipping, but no demand for finer qualities—Kentucky 3½ to 5¾—flaxseed 100 to 105.

The markets in Europe is the first object of inquiry. In addition to our quotations, we find these remarks:

Liverpool, April 24

The demand for coffee yesterday greatly revived, particularly for E. India descriptions and foreign coffee. At Rotterdam the prices had advanced 7 or 8s per cwt—large orders having been received from Germany, the interior being entirely out of stock. Sugar is also looking up and prices improving. The inquiry for rice had revived. Carolina has been sold at 5os. duty paid, and 80 for a parcel in bond.

A new loan has been got up in England, and the list of subscribers was nearly full. Among them are the houses of N. M. Rothschild, Reid, Erving, &c. and Jackson, & Co.

Liverpool, May 1.

The following letter received by Messrs. Carson, Dennison, & Parry of this town, contains some further particulars in addition to what we have given of the duels which have recently taken place at Gibraltar between the British and American officers.

Gibraltar, April 3.

Some of the American squadron has been here these few days, and have insulted some of the officers of the 64th regiment and sent challenges, and two duels were fought on the neutral ground the day before yesterday. In the first, a captain of the 64th was wounded in the thigh, at the first shot; he was doing very well however. The next affair was between another American officer and a Capt. Johnson, of the same regiment, who wounded the American the second shot, and again struck him, on the forth shot, in the groin, and it is reported that he is since dead. Another duel took place in St. George's Cave, yesterday at 4 o'clock, between Captain Dixon, of same regiment, with another American Captain, and wounded the American the first shot on the head; the guard came to take them prisoners, and the American endeavoring to get away from the guard, being weak with loss of blood, fell and cut his face. Notwithstanding the duel, captain Dixon borrowed a horse from a gentleman and mounted the American on it, and proceeded with him all the way to Ragged Staff, where the American boat lay. The guard at that place were going to stop him, but captain Dixon told the guard to take him and let the American go, as he had given his word of honor he should not be stopped. The sloop of war is moved this morning to Algiers.

"I remain gentlemen, your very obedient humble servant,

"WM. KENNEDY."

The celebrated ship Isabella, which bore the flag of captain Ross, in the late voyage to the polar regions, sailed lately from Hull for America, with 200 English passengers, men, women and children.

The emigration from that port is most prodigious, and is continually increasing. They are of all descriptions, but chiefly persons who possess a little property.—The loss of so many valuable citizens, in this season of national difficulty, cannot be easily estimated.

COUNTERFEITERS.

The annexed circular or notice, was published at this office last week and sent to the postmasters, generally, in this state, to the cashiers of the banks, &c. in order if possible, to detect the fellows described.

Nashville Whig, May 8.

SIR—You are hereby notified to beware of Counterfeiters, a gang of whom have been pursued from the state of Mississippi, and are supposed to be now in Tennessee; when last seen, they were bending their course to the eastward. They crossed the Tennessee river at Colbert's ferry; one or two took the road to Murfreesboro', and three advanced as far as Franklin. It is believed that they travel with all the apparatus necessary for changing the notes of any bank from 5 to 50 dollars, and from 10 to 100, dols.; and it is known that they have a quantity of notes of the Louisiana Bank wholly counterfeit, and of the bank of Orleans, altered from 5 to 50 dols.—and it is believed that attempts have been made by them to change the notes of the Nashville and Tennesse banks from 10 to 100. They will not be seen all together except at fixed points—and in that case will appear to be strangers to each other, and only by close watching be discovered that they have any connexion.

One of them is upwards of 6 feet high, light hair and eyes, well formed, of gentlemanly deportment, which he cannot wholly throw off, and about 30 years of age, has a suit of blue mixed homespun, twilled: a silver cased dirk fastened to his suspenders, elegant gold watch, two seals to a brown ribbon for a chain—had a blanket capeau coat.

The 2d. is about 5 feet 10 inches high, spare made, dark eyes, having much of the Indian cast in them, nose rather long and slender, flatted on the sides, and forming a narrow flat ridge on the top, bending at the point to one side, hair black and straight; 28 or 30 years of age, black beard, most conspicuous on the chin and upper lip: has a blue cloth suit, and an oiled silk great coat or cloak.

A 3d. of this group is a middle sized man light hair and eyes, a fresh fair complexion, had a light gray cloth coat, also, a blanket coat, and is from 25 to 30 years of age.

The 4th is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, thick set, has a suit of black cloth.

The 5th is a young man, about 18 or 20 years of age by the name of ——— fresh complexion, and is pert looking and a pert spoken little fellow.

It is probable they will change their dress in order to disguise themselves, &c.

You are requested to communicate the above information to the vigilant citizens of your town and neighborhood—and if circumstances should lead you to believe that any of the gang are or have been in your vicinity, please to make it known by a line addressed to R. B. Currey, esq. the post master at this place, as soon as possible.

The first and third pass for brothers, by the name of Jones. The second rode, when last seen a fine dark brown horse, slimnicked tail, with a halter mark, swelled round the nose just above the nostril. ——— rode a small, well built, light gray mare. Jones, the first, was acquainted with a Mr. Dickerson, in Suffolk Va. and a Mr. Smith, who kept a public house there, and who has been dead about six years—he also appeared to be acquainted with Mr Cross, living close to Somerton, Virginia.

There is no doubt but this gang is the same who have made such depredations in changing the notes of the bank of the state of Georgia.

 Editors of Newspapers, generally, in the western and southern country, are requested to insert this notice.

SEA SERPENT RETURNED.

The Boston Gazette of Monday announces the return to our coast of the celebrated sea serpent. It was seen on Friday and Saturday last, near Cohasset Rocks, and appeared to be from 80 to a hundred feet in length. [Com. Adv.

Norfolk, June 9.

Capt. Choate, of the schr. Chas. K. Mallory, left at St. Salvador on the 1st of May, ship Commerce, Gardner, of Salem, for Europe, uncertain when to sail, brigs Eunice, Wardell, of do. destination unknown; Ellen Douglass, Martin, of do for Bremen, unc. Levant, Foster, of and for Salem, in 15 days, Blakeley, Fabins of and for do. in 30; Vigilant, Waters, of Boston, for Bremen in 10; Mary Ann, Moore, of and for do. in 15; Nautilus, Defreeze, of and do. in 10; Joseph, Stickney, of and for do. in 20, Prince Eugene, Bowers, of and for Providence, R. I. in 30; David Moffat, Warner, of and for Philadelphia, in 15;—Spoke on the 10th May, off Pernambuco, ship Argonaut, of and for Sagg-Harbor, 6 months out from Chili, with 1,300 bbls. oil on board.—Capt. Choate states that the Portuguese appear very much exasperated at the Americans in consequence of the depredations committed upon their commerce by insurgent privateers—they have lost a number of vessels lately by those piratical cruizers, and they are on all occasions free in declaring that the vessels who commit these depredations, are built and fitted out in the United States and manned principally by Americans.—Capt. C. was detained three days, after he had got ready for sea, on account of the rakish appearance of his vessel, which caused a suspicion on the part of the Portuguese authorities that she was a privateer, and he would doubtless have had to discharge again had it not been for the spirited interference of Mr. Hill, the American Consul. Capt. C. however was compelled to give security that he would not molest any Portuguese vessels—American produce was very plenty in most of the ports of Brazil, and the produce there very high.

From a late London paper.

THE JEWS.

In the year 1200, in the reign of Edward I, the property of all the Jews in England was confiscated to the use of the crown; 280 of them were hanged in one day, charged with adulterating the coin. About 15000 of these unfortunate people in that reign were plundered of all their wealth, and banished the kingdom. In the year 1818, in the reign of George III, Mr. Rotchchield, a celebrated Jew, was at the head of most of the loans to the European kings and emperors.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes,

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Curvature of the Spine.

DR. HAMILTON,
No. 47, North Gay street, Baltimore,

HAVING turned much of his attention during a long practice to the diseases of the Spine, begs leave to tender his services for the cure or relief of that afflicting malady. The approach of this disease is easily detected by an attentive observer. It makes its appearance generally in children between the second and sixth year; a protuberance of one or more of the small bones composing the spine becomes evident, loss of appetite, irregularity of the bowels, and emaciation soon follow, together with much disinclination to walk—and unless immediate aid is obtained, death or incurable decripitude through life are the certain consequences.

Doctor Hamilton has the satisfaction of knowing that his treatment of this disease, and application of the necessary apparatus, which is simplified at the same time, that it is materially improved, have received the unqualified approbation of many of the most eminent of his medical brethren in Baltimore, Spring corsets, upon a new principle, can be applied for the use of young ladies evincing a tendency to this disease, which, while they afford the most effectual support for either side, may be worn without observation. Satisfactory references might be given to parents whose children have profited by this improved mode of treatment, did not delicacy forbid the publication: they may be easily obtained if desired, by a private interview.
